Syndicates and clubs by number of wins in the quarter.

What A First Year Costs (October)

- Median £900, middle half £348 to £2,762.50, range £99 to £8,950; 15 of 28 are under £1,000.
- 8 of 42 listings with an upfront price charge none. Median monthly fee £62.50 (36 listings).

Listings by first-year cost (upfront plus 12 months of any monthly fee). Sterling only.

Price Per 1% (October)

- Median £1,155 across 69 sterling shares; £310 to £4,800. Flat £955, Jumps £1,615.
- 127 shares on sale from 29 syndicates; 33 of 56 listings that state a badge policy guarantee badges.

Shares by first-year cost per 1% of a horse. Lower is not automatically better value. Ireland stays in euros.

The Funding Squeeze: What The Budget Means

Machine Games Duty on higher-stake shop machines rises from 20% to 25% on 1 April 2027 (GOV.UK). £63.3m of 2025's £194.7m British prize money came from the Levy Board (BHA). The BHA estimates racing could lose £57m a year. Fees follow training costs, so the main risk to members is less prize money back. October 2026 baseline: median first year £900, monthly fee £62.50, £1,155 per 1%; we will track it monthly.

Read with care. Results cover only the syndicates and clubs currently listed in our directory, and are minimums: the same group as our league tables and winners leaderboard. Small samples move a lot (Jumps in Q3 is 155 runs). The all-runner strike rate was 10.8%, but fields differ, so it is not a measure of skill. Prices are a first October snapshot, so there is no trend yet.

Not advice. Racehorse ownership is a hobby, not an investment. Facts about past results and published prices, not tips. Paid listings never affect the numbers. Results: Q3 2026 (1 July to 30 September), with Q1 and Q2 for comparison, compiled by RacingDatabase.com from official race results; prices checked 19 October 2026 to 29 October 2026; shares checked 26 October 2026.
